REY SOLIS	§

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

A detention hearing has been held in accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). The following requires detention of the defendant pending trial in this case:

- (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear; and
- (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

The evidence against the defendant is substantial. The defendant admitted to Border Patrol at the checkpoint that he had aliens in his truck. The findings and conclusions contained in the Pretrial Services Report are adopted. The Defendant's felony probation for three burglary of a habitation charges was revoked in 2001 and he was sentenced to four years in prison. He was also convicted of evading arrest and escape, and after release from prison, in 2005 he went to prison again for five years for aggravated assault. In 2011, the Defendant was also convicted of failure to identify. His history makes him a poor bond risk and a serious risk of flight.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the United States Marshal or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

ORDERED this 10th day of September, 2013.

B. JANICE ELLINGTON
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
